HYPNOTIST AND FILMS AT BIJOU

Virtually a "double bill" will be offered at the Bijou theater each evening during the current week. There will be a big feature film, a Triangle, entitled "The Devil's Needle," which under the ordinary circumstances would about constitute an evening's entertainment. Also, there will be a rip-roaring program put on by Prof. Norwood, hypnotist and entertainer who has gained an enviable reputation wherever a theater or town hall can be found and who is just returning to the United States after a world's tour of more than five years.

Just about every trick in the bag carried by the hypnotist will be turned loose during the week at the Bijou theater. Just as many laughs as can be crowded into a minute will be the speed of mirth at these performances. As everybody knows a genuine hypnotic show is one in which a number of persons are gathered on the stage and made to perform queer antics while "under the influence." This is where Prof. Norwood should score a big success as he has a large number of suggestions to make to his unsuspecting subjects. Further, this entertainer believes in taking the audience into the secret of his work and ably demonstrates, as the performance progresses, the why and wherefore of the business. This latter feature is something decidedly new to hypnotic performances as the usual entertainer prefers to cast a mystery and occult suggestion around his work.

Reservations are now on sale for the entire week at the office of the Bijou theater and may be made by telephone if desired. There is no advance in prices for this double bill, consequently it is anticipated that packed houses will greet Prof. Norwood at each performance.

TWO NEW GUARD COMPANIES FORM

Approximately 250 new guardsmen are in the 1st Hawaiian Infantry as the result of systematic organizing conducted yesterday at Waiialua and Ewa plantations in the formation of two more companies. The strength of the first regiment is now considerably more than 1000 and a total of 2000 seems likely within a short time.

Gen. Samuel I. Johnson and Capt. Lawrence C. Crawford kept in touch with the organizing of both companies yesterday. At Waiialua the enlistments were in the hands of Lieut. T. C. Boylan, adjutant 3d battalion, 1st Infantry. He was assisted by Drs. A. K. Hanchett, C. B. Cooper and H. Wood.

Maj. Will Wayne was in charge of organization at Ewa, assisted by Capt. Frank Dougherty, adjutant of the 1st Infantry. Most of the recruits at Ewa are Filipinos, but all can read and write. The Waiialua company consists of Hawaiians, Portuguese, Filipinos and Japanese.

Manager Renton at Ewa and Manager Goodale at Waiialua offered every possible help yesterday, placing storage space and other property at the disposal of the guard officers.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST GIVES FINE CONCERT

Paul Yegorovitch, 16-year-old Russian soldier-violinist, at the Mission memorial hall gave a remarkable concert and although in a weakened condition from wounds sustained as a Slav soldier he never faltered, but carried his program through with fire and enthusiasm which brought long cheers from the audience. He was followed by E. Fiddler, a fellow graduate of the Petrograd conservatory.

In Tarnet's Berceuse and Gounod's Ave Maria, the latter ending the program, he played with exceptionally fine expression and showed that he could control his instrument both in tender and more impassioned moments. At the completion of Ave Maria the audience called him back for two encores which he selected from Russian scores. At the end he was barely able to walk from the stage and it was thought for a time that he would collapse.

REV. HENRY P. JUDD with his family has left for the other side of the island for a short vacation.
